Career Development Support

For many crew life has its twists and turns sometimes leading to a desire for career changes. Often, we benefit from advice and support while exploring different avenues and opportunities.

Crew members may be interested in gaining new skills, pursuing further education, or exploring other roles within the airline as they become available.

Airlines generally prefer to hire from within their ranks due to the advantages it brings to the organisation.

Our Proposal

We propose making career guidance and mentoring services accessible to members as part of their membership benefits, subject to specific terms and conditions.

Legal Advice

Most of us, at some point, are faced with personal legal issues, and we require arms-length totally independent legal advice.

Such issues include traffic fines, family law, conveyancing and contract law.

Our Proposal

FAAA purchases an insurance policy that covers the crew for the first three consultations with an accredited legal practitioner.

Crew Social Functions

Our workforce is unique, it's a lifestyle not a job and the bonds are strong amongst crew, it was a job for life and crew never left the airline. We're committed to rebuilding this sense of togetherness and family and unity.

Benefits to members:

- Strong bonds of solidarity are nurtured, building community.
- Giving back to members.
- Encouraging feedback and updates from our organisation.

Our Proposal

- Hosting exclusive get-togethers
- Events occur twice a year across key Australian cities.
- Tickets will be affordable, only covering costs.
- Events will also support fundraising for a chosen cause.
