

FAAA Honorary Board

Honorary Board

There is a vast untapped knowledge base of experience and wisdom. The Honorary Board comprises esteemed former holders of influential positions within the union, which will be advisory for our union's current and future governance.

The board will provide intergenerational leadership and checks and balances to ensure transparency and accountability. Once the board is established, it will be the members of the board that elect and select themselves.